

Somewhere in between the rolling fields of the Midwest, in a garage studio - long time music lovers and friends, The Common Faces explore what it means to be human. Through the ups and downs of life, music is the constant.

Since 2016 The Common Faces have been making music together. Soon they will be releasing their first E.P “The Ups and Downs”.